Code of Ethics

Members of the Midwest Sociological Society subscribe to and are bound by the Code of Ethics of the American Sociological Association.

To read the Code in its entirety, please visit the ASA online at www.ASAnet.org and follow the link to “Ethics.”

Members are reminded that sexual or racial harassment is unethical in any professional setting, and that the annual meetings constitute such a professional setting. Instances of harassment should be reported as soon as possible to the Professional Issues and Standards Committee.

Welcome

We are pleased to have you join us for the 2011 meeting of the Midwest Sociological Society and the beginning of our 75th Anniversary year. Your Program Chair and Program Committee, along with our phenomenal Executive Director Lauren Tiffany and amazing local arrangements chair, Vicky Herbel, have been working to bring you a stimulating, rewarding and truly enjoyable experience here in historic St. Louis. I cannot give enough thanks to my student assistants, Pooya Naderi, and Carrie Wendel-Hummel, for their incredible effort over the past year. And a special thank you to Brad Smith of MeetingSavvy.com for his patience in the project of moving the MSS deeper into the world of efficient meeting-management technology.

We launch our 75th celebration on Friday with a Birthday Party and Dance directly following Peter Kivisto's Presidential Address: "We Really Are All Multiculturalists Now." I hope everyone will come to honor Peter and to commemorate the many years that the MSS has supported and maintained excellence in sociological teaching and research.

"The Dynamics of Inequality," this year's theme, will be explored in its many facets through a variety of formats over the next four days. Here are some of the highlights:

- Keynote speaker, Chloe Bird of the RAND Corporation, Santa Monica, will speak on "Constrained Choice: A Framework to Assess and Address Health Disparities." Chloe's talk elaborates an important dynamic of inequality in the context of health and health care. This is especially appropriate given the landmark health reform legislation passed by Congress in 2010.
- The Peter Hall Lecture this year focuses on Peter himself, speaking on his early "red diaper baby" years and connections to his subsequent career as an academic sociologist.
- Two additional thematic sessions feature invited speakers. First, Professor Alexander Smith of the UK (University of Huddersfield) will present a paper based on qualitative research conducted over the past several years in the Midwestern United States. In a paper framed by Pragmatism, he presents his ideas on political moderation. Discussants include Professors Robert Antonio and Kevin Leicht, as well as Boo Tyson, Executive Director of the MAIN-stream Coalition of Johnson County, Kansas. Second, Leonard Zeskind, McArthur Fellow and author of the recent book, Blood and Politics: The History of the White Nationalist Movement from the Margins to the Mainstream (Farrar, Straus and Giroux 2009), will present a workshop session on white nationalism.

Members' books are featured at the 2011 meetings. Several of these books will be featured in Author Meets Critics sessions. We also have many of our members' books included in our book exhibit. Then at noon on Saturday you will have a chance to Meet the Authors in the Book Exhibit space.

Other special events this year include a pub crawl to the historic Soulard district (Thursday PM), two day-time tours, and a Film Festival, which will run Thursday and Saturday evenings, featuring new and recent documentary films suitable for sociology classes. A venue dedicated specifically to students will be open adjacent to the Festival.

Explore, get involved, and enjoy the meetings!

MSS Committees

---

The Midwest Sociological Society's committees and their members are listed below. The lists include both outgoing and incoming committee members. New committee members begin their service by attending the committee's meeting at the annual meeting. Outgoing committee members conclude their service in the year designated beside their name. The schedule of committee meetings appears in the front of this program book: Each committee meeting is designated with a session number. If unsure which committee meetings to attend, please find your name in the list of committee members on these pages; and then check the schedule of committee meetings in the front of this book.

Host an Emerald Author Workshop

 Emerald LiteratiNetwork

Emerald Group Publishing Inc. is the world's leading publisher of management research.

Consider hosting an Author Workshop for your students and faculty throughout 2011 on your campus.

Dr James H. Walther, US Publishing Advisor, has a background as an Emerald journal Editor, a librarian and faculty member. Contact him at:

jwalther@emeraldinsight.com

or on 866-991-8799.

Workshops are free and will provide insiders with information on:

- How to get started
- How to target your work more effectively
- The essentials of a research paper
- The benefits of getting published
- What Editors and reviewers actually look for
- The five key questions that make or break a paper
- How to peer-review your own work
- The secrets of revision.

University Readers™

Reading Materials Evolved.

The Social Issues Collection™

A Routledge/University Readers custom library for teaching

Customizing course material for innovative and excellent teaching in sociology has never been easier or more effective!

Choose from a collection of over 270 readings from Routledge, Taylor & Francis, and other publishers to make a custom reader that suits the needs of students in your undergraduate sociology courses.

CASE STUDY: Race and Ethnicity

ENROLLMENT: 25

SCHOOL: George Fox University

PROBLEM: Sociology textbooks were expensive and always required supplemental material to teach the course effectively, while other publishing companies were a pain to use.

SOLUTION: University Readers offered an easy-to-use and affordable solution, catering specifically to this kind of sociology course.

For over 25 undergraduate sociology courses including:

- Race and Ethnicity
- Marriage and Family
- Gender
- Cultural Sociology
- Sociology of Religion
- Sociology of Work and Economy
- Sociology of Media and Communication
- Environmental Sociology
- Sociology of Place
- Globalization
- Social Inequalities
- Criminology

Create a custom reader with content from any of the following sources:

Readings from The Social Issues Collection—pre-cleared, with reduced permission rates, and available online

Book chapters, journal articles, newspaper articles, private essays, case studies, and other copyrighted materials

Class notes, PowerPoint slides, and other original materials

"I 'discovered' University Readers this summer and have used the program to tailor-make a reader for an upper division sociology course. After years of going through the hassle of putting together readers that have cost over $100.00, I am overly pleased and impressed with University Readers and the reader possibilities that they offer. Now I can offer my students a more affordable option! The customer service has been outstanding and I will continue to use University Readers each semester. I am spreading the word to as many of my colleagues as possible!"

SOCIAL PROBLEMS

One of the most respected and widely read journals in the social sciences, Social Problems presents accessible, relevant, and innovative articles with critical perspectives on contemporary social issues. Covering an extensive array of complex social concerns from race and gender through labor relations and civil rights, Social Problems has been an important forum for sociological thought for over five decades.

SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES

Established in 1957, Sociological Perspectives offers a wealth of pertinent articles within the field of sociology. Contributions by leading scholars address the ever-expanding body of knowledge about social processes related to economic, political, anthropological and historical issues.

SYMBOLIC INTERACTION

Showcasing the study of interpersonal conduct and experience, Symbolic Interaction is one of the leading journals in its field. It emphasizes empirically grounded research based on ethnographic and other qualitative methods. Influential scholars from the fields of sociology, social psychology, communication, education, nursing, organizations, mass media, and more contribute to the journal's cutting-edge articles, book reviews, and discussion forums.
