

Position: Adjunct Instructor – Sociology

Division: Arts/Communications/Social Sciences

Job Description:

The Arts/Communications/Social Sciences Division is accepting applications for part-time instructor for the following course to be offered during the 2020-2021 academic year:

- Introduction to Sociology
- Marriage and Family
- Social Problems

Responsibilities of a Kishwaukee College Adjunct Instructor include:

- Promoting the philosophy, mission, and vision of Kishwaukee College
- Providing engaging, enthusiastic, and student-centered teaching to community college students
- Establishing a professional classroom atmosphere that encourages mutual respect and civil engagement
- Contributing a collegial, collaborative and positive attitude to the college campus
- Understanding and conveying the essentials of the course discipline that students should master
- Maintaining high academic standards while demonstrating equitability and fairness
- Working successfully and productively in a team environment with full time faculty
- Performing the necessary duties of an adjunct instructor to ensure quality instruction

Please note: A complete application should include a cover letter; teaching philosophy statement, (if applying for a position in instruction); and an unofficial copy of your transcripts/licenses/or additional certifications.

Required Skills:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Understanding of, and commitment to, the comprehensive community college mission.
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office.
- Commitment to fostering an engaging learning environment for a diverse student body.
- Flexibility for teaching courses offered day, evening, and online.
- Instructional expertise to deliver instruction for 21st century learners and assess student learning outcomes as appropriate to ensure academic quality.
- Facility with a range of teaching and learning strategies to foster active learning and student success, which contributes to the fulfillment of the College's strategic goals.
- Willingness to participate in activities or on college committees that contribute to the success of students.

Successful candidate will need:

- Master's degree in the subject area or Master's degree in a related field with 18 graduate credit hours in the subject area
- Experience teaching online
- Experience with dual-credit/early college instruction preferred
- Background/reference check
- Official Transcripts
- SURS Annuitant and Loan Default Form
- SSA-1945 Form

To apply: <https://kish.peopleadmin.com/postings/1829>